Dear Brian and Tex:

Enclosed please find an update to my letter of August 22, with additional names of AIUSA adoptees, including the disappeared people.

Could you please advise me of what you are doing about those people who have been recently released, especially into house arrest, ie. Alfredo Bravo, Juan Rodolfo Acuña, and Jorge Reynaldo Puebla Aguilera. Are they eligible for the parole program? Why have there been no applications sent over by the UNHCR, especially in the light of the demands that have reached us from the Chilean refugees in La Prida Hotel in Buenos Aires? Can a certificate be issued without the interview by an INS officer? If not, isn't there a sufficient caseload to warrant one being sent down immediately for the detainees?

Sorry to keep pestering you, but we do seem to have to clarify these matters.

All best,

Wendy Turnbull
